

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

For the COTC

John C. “Jay” Barker Community Service Alumni Award

The Development Office of Central Ohio Technical College (COTC) is now accepting nominations for the prestigious John C. “Jay” Barker Community Service Alumni Award, which was created in 2013 by the COTC Alumni Council. The purpose of the award is to recognize COTC alumni who have made a significant impact through their service to improve our community.

Criteria to consider when nominating:

Does the nominee use their talents to serve their community?

Does the nominee personally undertake at least one of the following:

Serve on a community board or lead a community project? Inspire others to volunteer their time and talents?

Advance the college (COTC) through their service?

To nominate someone for this award, you must submit the following:

Completed nomination form (available through the Alumni link on the COTC web site at www.cotc.edu or go directly to the online form <http://www.cotc.edu/Alumni/Pages/Alumni-Awards.aspx>).

Documentation of support criteria to consider. This may include a résumé and/or a written statement of explanation about how the candidate meets the award criteria.

If the submission is being written by a family member of the nominee, you must include contact information and a letter of support from a peer and/or supervisor of the nominee.

For additional information regarding the Community Service Alumni Award, to learn more about the Alumni Program, or to update your contact information with the college, please contact Laura Walsh at 740.364.9514 or email to lwalsh@cotc.edu.
